Thanks Dennis.

It's been nearly eight years since Public Law 106-50 (the Veterans Entrepreneurship Act) passed, mandating that 3 percent of all federal contracts and subcontracts shall be awarded to service-disabled veteran-owned small business. Many people talk about the 3 percent, but some are actually doing something about it. Dennis DeMolet is one of those individuals. As the former chair of the Small Business Administration's Advisory Committee of Veterans Business Affairs and a tireless advocate for veterans, Dennis has made veterans in business his passion and life's work. He has sacrificed his own time and money to pay back other advocates who blazed a trail before him for the veterans' business movement.

NaVOBA supports the efforts of veteran-owned business advocates like Dennis and channels a portion of all VOB membership fees to a fund that benefits a variety of pro-veteran nonprofits that have taken up our cause with the selflessness equivalent to Dennis's. NaVOBA thanks Dennis for "walking point" on behalf of all vetrepreneurs.
